THIRD SUCCESSIVE ROBBERY AT PUTNAM HOME LAST NIGHT

BURGLARS MAKE GOOD BAIL AND A SUCCESSFUL GETAWAY

MAIN ENTRANCE BY MEANS OF CLIMBING FRONT PORCH AND REMOVING SCREEN FROM A FRONT WINDOW.

The robbery last night of the home of E. S. Putnam in Seabreeze is exactly the same manner in which the home of J. D. Rose home was robbed Wednesday night and the home of G. C. Bates robbed Tuesday night, minus there is at least one, and possibly a gang of professional burglars working in Daytona and vicinity at this time.

All three homes were entered in exactly the same manner, by climbing on the roof of the porch at the front part of the house and raising the screen on the second floor, using a Chief window fastener, but the work was that of a professional burglar, as in each case the screen was at either of the sisters, member of the household, who had to be porch and the difficulty in removing entirely would find it a simple one the roof without making the slightest noise.

At the Putnam home last night the robber escaped a very valuable opening, open-faced watch and fob of Carter makes, quietly removed from the sleeping room of Mr. Putnam in the front part of the house. Mr. Putnam and family were frightened the burglar away before he had time to make a search for valuables, as soon as the home person sleeping was disturbed, with Mr. Putnam's home, which leads to the hall a clear, being undisturbed or searched.

Evidence that entrance was gained in same of the girls in the front of the tracks across the roof of the porch. The screen which covered the window opened from the inside with two hooks, and these were displaced with little or no damage, the most without making any noise, the screen and sash were raised and the burglar and the gateway entered as in the case of the robbery of the home of the robbery until this morning. The porch roof of the Putnam home is so high and so far it would be practically impossible for any one to climb to the roof without using a ladder or some sort of a hook or rope to pull the ladder up over the edge, and it is probable an amateur would be prepared to make such a climb.

The watch taken was a very valuable relic, being a watch of distinguished ancestry and a disposition of the Putnam family. Mr. Fitch for any person but one acquainted with the methods of professional burglars." Mr. Putnam is offering $100 reward for the arrest of the robber and return of the watch and chain.

BURGLARS MAKE GOOD HAUL AND A SUCCESSFUL GETAWAY

GAIN ENTRANCE BY MEANS OF CLIMBING FRONT PORCH AND REMOVING SCREEN FROM A FRONT WINDOW.

The robbery last night of the home of E. B. Putnam in Seabreeze in exactly the same manner in which the J. B. Moore home was robbed Wednesday night and the home of N. C. Sears robbed Thursday night, indicates there is at least one, and possibly a gang of professional burglars working in Daytona and vicinity at this time.

All three homes were entered in exactly the same manner, by climbing to the roof of the porch at the front part of the house and entering the rooms on the second floor through a front window. Indications that the work was that of a professional are stronger at the Putnam home than at either of the others, because of the overhanging roof of the porch and the difficulty an amateur climber would find in getting onto the roof without making loud noises.

At the Putnam home last night the robber secured a very valuable repeating, open-faced watch and a set of Curley razors, quietly removed from the sleeping room of Mr. Putnam in the front part of the house. Some sort of noise must have frightened the burglar away before he had time to make a more thorough search of the house, because nothing was disturbed, even Mr. Putnam's trousers, which were lying on a chair, being undisturbed or searched.

Evidence that entrance was gained by means of the porch is shown by the tracks across the roof of the porch. The screen which covered the window was hooked from the inside with two hooks, and these were unfastened with some sort of instrument without making any noise. The watch and razors were secured by the burglar and the getaway conducted so quietly that nothing was known of the robbery until this morning. The porch roof at the Putnam home extends out so far it would be practically impossible for any man to climb to the roof without using a ladder or some sort of a hook with which to pull himself up over the edge, and it is probable no amateur would be prepared to make such a climb.

The watch taken was a very valuable repeating watch which is easily distinguished and a description of the timepiece would be difficult for any person but one acquainted with the methods of professional "fencers." Mr. Putnam is offering $200 reward with no questions asked for the return of the watch and razors.

NEW WINTER TRAIN SCHEDULE TO GO INTO EFFECT TUESDAY

NEW SEASON PASSENGER TRAIN SERVICE WILL BE MUCH IMPROVED BY THE INSTALLATION OF STEEL TRAINS.

The new winter schedule of the trains on the Florida East Coast railroad will go into effect next Tuesday, the through trains from the north providing better accommodations for the tourists coming to Florida for the winter and for short visits. Efforts are being made by the officials of the East Coast to make the service second to none and indications are that it will be better than that furnished last season.

The new equipment for this season will include three all new steel trains [illegible] equipped and electric lighted throughout. To handle the new trains there will be twenty new model locomotives of the Pacific type, among the most powerful passenger locomotives in the south.

Additional yard and switch track space has been provided by the track building that has been done during the summer months and the congestion of freight trains, which helped delay the passenger trains last year, will not be so evident this season.

AEROPLANE EXHIBITIONS EVERY DAY

PLAN SUBMITTED LAST NIGHT TO THE DAYTONA HOTEL MEN

REPRESENTATIVE OF BURGESS-CURTISS COMPANY MAKES A PROPOSITION TO CARRY PASSENGERS FOR PAY.

That Daytona may have daily hydro-aeroplane flying exhibitions during a large part of the winter season, now seems probable, although no definite action has been taken on the matter and it will not be settled until the proposition has been put up to the board of trade at its meeting next Tuesday evening.

The proposition was submitted to the Daytona hotel men at a meeting held last evening by a representative of the Burgess-Curtiss company, and briefly outlined the proposition is that the company will send a hydro-aeroplane and representative here to make flights twice daily for a period of six weeks for $300.

As the matter was talked over with the hotel men by the Burgess-Curtiss representative the plan would be to give the exhibitions on the beach, in the forenoon near the Clarendon hotel and in the afternoon flights to be made from the Halifax river. The hotel men's association voted to pay $100 of the $300 asked, leaving the matter of paying the balance to the board of trade. The Clarendon hotel will take care of the operators as its share of the expense.

The sum of $300 asked by the company is for what it considers will be about the actual expense of keeping an aviator and aeroplane here for the period of six weeks. In addition to this the company plans to have the aviator carry passengers for pay and expects to realize quite a sum of money in this way. Passengers will be carried to and from the beach and on exhibition flights.

The proposition will be put up to the board of trade with the report that the hotel men favor the plan to furnish attractions and entertainment for the winter residents.

Final arrangements for the entertainment of the passenger agents here tomorrow were made at the meeting of the hotel men and the board of trade committee.

The bridal couple are now with Mr. Hopson's parents at Jacksonville, from which city they will come here for a short visit on their return to Sanford, where they will make their home. Mr. Hopson is known in Daytona, as he travels for the L. W. Riley wholesale grocery house of Jacksonville.

AGENTS ARE COMING TOMORROW

WILL BE ENTERTAINED HERE WITH LUNCH AND AUTO RIDE

BOARD OF TRADE AND HOTEL MEN PROPOSE TO SHOW VISITORS GOOD TIME DURING THE AFTERNOON.

The delegates from the convention of the Association of American Passenger Agents will arrive in Daytona tomorrow by special train at about 1 o'clock in the afternoon and be entertained by the Daytona board of trade and hotel men's association until late in the evening, when the special train will start on the trip farther south.

The passenger men are on a junketing trip through the state and over to Cuba, following the annual convention in Jacksonville, which closed today. They are in a position to be boosters for or against every city and town on a railroad in this state and every effort will be made by the board of trade and hotel men to give the delegates a good time while they are in this city.

The program of entertainment calls for the special train to be met by members of the two committees with plenty of automobiles to carry the delegates to the automobile clubhouse, where they will be served with a buffet lunch. After the lunch they will be taken for an automobile ride through Daytona, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze and to the Clarendon hotel, where they will again be served with refreshments.

Completing the automobile ride they will be taken to the various hotels and served with supper, then to the special train for the start toward Palm Beach.

The original plan was to take the visitors for a ride on the wold famous beach, but the condition of the tide tomorrow afternoon will not permit this feature of the program.

NO PARDON FOR CHAS. MORSE BANKER REPORTED NOT DYING

SURGEONS APPOINTED TO MAKE EXAMINATION OF CONVICT MAKE THEIR REPORT TO THE PRESIDENT.

POLICEMEN AT PEACE BANQUET

TO PREVENT ANY DISORDER AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA

ROOSEVELT AND GAYNOR REFUSE TO ATTEND FUNCTION AT WHICH PRESIDENT TAFT IS TO BE SPEAKER.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30—Fifty stalwart policemen, members of the "strong arm squad," will attend the peace banquet at the Waldorf Astoria tonight clad in evening dress and will mingle with the guests to prevent any signs of disorder.

President Taft will be the guest of honor at the banquet and is expected to speak in favor of arbitration of treaties. He may take this occasion to answer the foes of his peace policies, who are led by former President Theodore Roosevelt.

John Temple is to be the toastmaster at the banquet and the plans for the affair have raised much bitterness. Andrew Carnegie, usually toastmaster at this annual function, is reported to have done all in his power to make the banquet a failure and is said also to have been attempting to persuade President Taft not to atend.

Theodore Roosevelt received an invitation to attend the banquet, but has refused to be present. Mayor Gaynor also received an invitation, but refused to accept. It is rumored that Mayor Gaynor is dissatisfied with the toastmaster.

The outcome of the banquet and the bitter feeling is being watched with much interest.

Taft Goes to New York—

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30—President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and Senator Penrose left here at 10 o'clock this morning for New York to attend the peace banquet tonight. President Taft refused to comment on the actions of the peace dinner factions. The executive had not acted on the case of Banker Chas. Morse before leaving Washington.

Roosevelt Ugly Again—

NEW YORK, Dec. 30—Former President Roosevelt is the author of another furious assault upon the policies of President Taft in correspondence between Mr. Roosevelt and the promoters of the peace dinner tonight, the correspondence having been made public today on demand of the former president.

The colonel became more personal than at any previous time, declaring that the very men who are back of the arbitration treaties so enthusiastically at this time will be the first to repudiate them the moment something in which they are interested becomes involved in the dispute.

To The Public:
It is our desire to call to your attention the convenience that we can extend to you in a banking way and also the advantages of using the check book instead of the pocketbook.
Nine tenths of the business of the world today is done by check.
Why?
Because it is the most practical and it is the one safe way!
Are you utilizing a check book to pay all bills that can be paid by check?
Think this over.
Our bank's advantages for your account are many.
Yours very truly,

A. D. McBRIDE, President.

Wanted a Chance.

One of the performers at Proctor's this week relates an incident that occurred on Wednesday evening. He was playing an engagement. There was an act on the bill in which a gentleman had he chide a chief across the stage without exhibiting him. The boy's part was so simple that it was always given to some member of the house. There was a "guy" man in that town to whom this little lack was assigned and he felt like a real actor. In the middle of the week's stand, just before the act was to go on, the "guy" man said to the player who had the fugitive business:

"Say, mister, let me catch you tonight,—Newark (N. J.) Star.

Inventor of Ice Cream.

"I am looking for some means of verifying a statement that is printed on the bottom of the bill of fare in a colored people's restaurant that I visit once a month," a gas collector said. "In a eulogistic footnote the people are quite attention to the excellence of his own home-made ice cream; then he adds that all members of the dish might to eat ice cream because it was invented by a colored man—Samuel Jackson. Manager Snead announces that the Nilsno of Dante's Inferno, the divine comedy in five reels, will be shown at the New Daytona theatre two afternoons and evenings next Tuesday and Wednesday, January 2 and 3.

The film, which has created a furore in motion pictures circles, is conceded to be the masterpiece of all motion picture photographs. The subject comprises five films. It was taken at a great cost between $50,000 and $100,000 and is vivid in its realism of the marvelous masterpiece of the Italian poet.

In spite of the advancement which motion pictures have made in the past year, the subject has gained more recognition from papers of this country and Europe, than any other single subject in the country. The presence of the film in Daytona will be a rare treat. Its length will prohibit more than two shows daily, an afternoon and evening performance. One hour and forty-five minutes are consumed in the presentation of this great subject. There will be a matinee daily at 3:30 o'clock.

KINGSTON.

E. M. Rich left home on the 25th inst. to visit friends in Virginia for a few days during the holidays.

J. J. Silva, who has been for a long time in the employment of the F. E. C. Ry., is at home now with his family at this place.

Roy Harden, of Orange City was a visitor here on the 27th, guest of his aunt at the Ferndale, having brought over a party of tourists from Enterprise to visit the beauties of Daytona.

Mrs. E. Bradley and two children, of Jacksonville, are visiting in Kingston, guests of Mrs. M. J. Davis, her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rheider returned on Wednesday evening from their Christmas trip to Jacksonville and St. Augustine, and report a merry time in the Ancient City and plenty of rain in Jacksonville.

Rev. T. R. Adams, pastor of the M. E. church, has returned from conference and is located here for another year.

Wanted a Chance.

One of the performers at Proctor's this week relates an incident that occurred in a western town where he was playing an engagement. There was an act on the bill in which a policeman had to chase a thief across the stage without catching him. The cop's part was so simple that it was always given to some employe of the house. There was a "prop" man in that town to whom this little task was assigned and he felt like a real actor. In the middle of the week's stand, just before the act was to go on, the "prop" man said to the player who had the fugitive business:

"Say, mister, let me catch you tonight, will you?"

"Why so?"

"Well, my girl is in the audience tonight."—Newark (N. J.) Star.

Indication of Interest.

"The school mistress is interested in you, dad."

"How's that?"

"Why, today, after she'd told me six times to sit down and behave myself, she said she wondered what kind of a father I had."—Judge.

An Estimate.

"What is your new automobile's horse-power?" "Well, it took two to haul it home the other day."

Inventor of Ice Cream.

"I am looking for some means of verifying a statement that is printed at the bottom of the bill of fare in a colored people's restaurant that I visit once a month," a gas collector said. "In a red-letter footnote the proprietor calls attention to the excellence of his own home-made ice cream; then he adds that all members of the race ought to eat ice cream because it was invented by a colored man named Jackson. So sure does he seem of his facts that he relates circumstances attending the evolution of ice cream from plain custard. The narrative sounds convincing, but colored people are so ready to vaunt the real and reputed achievements of the race that the ice cream legend may require verification."

Indigestion Ended With First Dose

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — Mrs. Jennie Pierson says: "I have been using your Pepsin for twelve days and must say that it is the only medicine I have ever found that benefits me in the first trial. I have tried a number of the so-called indigestion cures and Kidney cures and other medicines I have tried medicine from various doctors without any result and what so ever with the Pepsin that after having taken the first dose I have no more of my old trouble. I can eat what I like and sleep I wish by taking one tablet after meals and one during Tuesday. I have been a sufferer of dyspepsia for more than two years."

Indigestion may have been trying to find something to give you relief—Pepsin has relieved thousands and you can try it without risk—if you are not pleased you get your money back at druggists.

LOUISA ALCOTT RAN AWAY
Characteristic Incident of the Early Childhood of That Popular Story Writer.
Louisa May Alcott, who was probably the most popular writer of young people's stories of the last generation, left in a diary the following characteristic story of her own early childhood:
"Nothing some was one of the delights of our early days; the scene. The one of these occasions I passed a restless day with some trick children, who, despite my obvious dislike and protestations, said fun and create with me as we traveled in the safe hours which that adorned the wade lands where the Alleghy depot now stands. A trip to this locality was a great attraction, but as dark set, in and my friends decided to a I felt that home was a nice place after all, and tried to find it. I firmly remember watching a noisy company of boys and girls, from one step to 9-dined street, where a big fog horror of me so likely that I felt safety with my hand pressed on the cold brick, and was found there by the town crier, whom my distracted parents had sent to search of me. He had and pronounced of the case of a runaway girl, a boy, in a pink frock, white hat, and new green shoes, which we so, and a small voice answered out of the darkness: 'Who dare ask?' The story adds that the lies ended so; for when the little runaway was found to be the same one who had run in search of intance.

As to Giving the Bride Away.
One of the points in the bride's father giving her away, she should be particularly there, to argue, that the groom who gives himself away.
"In the bride," he continues, "a big mistake, and one which he should avoid. Yes, sir, she is not, nobody's giving maps of particular away. Some have a father would hardly be worth giving away, and some have no father to give away. The bridegroom—Church Notes.

"Running away was one of the delights of my early days," she wrote. "On one of these occasions I passed a varied day with some Irish children, who hospitably shared their cold potatoes, salt fish and crusts with me as we revelled in the ash heaps which then adorned the waste lands where the Albany depot now stands. A trip to the Common cheered the afternoon, but as dusk set in and my friends deserted me I felt that home was a nice place after all, and tried to find it. I dimly remember watching a lamp lighter as I sat to rest on some doorsteps in Bedford street, where a big dog welcomed me so kindly that I fell asleep with my head pillowed on his curly back, and was found there by the town crier, whom my distracted parents had sent in search of me. His bell and proclamation of the loss of a 'little girl, 6 years old, in a pink frock, white hat, and new green shoes,' woke me up, and a small voice answered out of the darkness: 'Why, dat's me!'" The story adds that the fun ended next day when the little runaway was tied to the arm of the sofa to repent at leisure.

As to Giving the Bride Away.

One pastor objects to the bride's father giving her away; she should be perfectly free, he argues, like the groom who gives himself away.

"Is the bride," he continues, "a bag of potatoes, that she should be given away?" No, sir, she is not; nobody's giving bags of potatoes away these days. As between potatoes and daughters a father would hesitate but little before deciding to give away the daughter.—Detroit News.
